Greetings from Congresswoman Barbara Lee

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you all to the Flight 93 Memorial Dedication ceremony in Union City, California. Although we must embark upon this endeavor with a heavy heart, remembering those who were lost to the tragedy of the Flight 93 hijacking, we can also cherish this as an opportunity to celebrate their lives and legacies.

We should never forget the underlying human factor of September 11, 2001. The brave individuals of Flight 93 and their families should always remain close to our hearts and in our thoughts. This memorial pays necessary tribute to the crew and passengers of Flight 93 who worked quickly to ensure that more lives would not be lost.

We all owe these individuals a debt of gratitude for their bravery and sacrifice. The Flight 93 Memorial in Union City will pay permanent tribute to them, and ensure that we will always remember the enduring beauty of the human spirit which can see us through our most challenging times.

I would like to take this opportunity to commend the organizers, planners, and contributors who have come together to make this memorial possible. Thank you for dedicating your efforts to honoring the men and women of Flight 93.

Sincerely Yours,

Barbara Lee
